Key Thought/s

Key questions from my message in relation to discipline.

Q: is it love to feed your children ice cream their entire lives?

: is it love to give your children what they want and demand?

: is it love to give your children the keys to your car when you know they are not mature enough to handle the responsibility you are giving them?

: is it love to give the drug addict their drugs when they are trying to get clean even though they are screaming at you to?

: is it love to know of a true reality that exists and not share it, because in sharing it you run the risk of being killed, breaking relationships, being mis-understood, misrepresented, walked away from.

Questions

- 1 What are our thoughts around our lives not being our own and how much of this is a reality in our lives?
- 2 God's kingdom is a Theocracy and not a Democracy. Why and how does knowing this influence our lives personally and being part of a family?
- 3 What corresponding cross overs did you hear from the message that relate from the physical to the spiritual in relation to family?
- 4 How important is discipline with God and why is it so important?
- 5 Why do people confuse discipline with the law or being too harsh, rather than an act of love?
- 6 What areas of your life do you need to be more spiritually disciplined in and get the group to pray for these areas?
