Questions:

1. What significant role does the Great Commandment play, in the losing of one's life for His sake?
2. Why is the losing of one's life for His Sake and not for our sake, so vital in our relationship with Christ?
3. What fruit can we expect from laying down our lives for His sake?
4. Why is it critical we as followers comprehend the covenant is both horizontal as well as vertical?
5. If you were to give yourself a score out of 10, in relation to the relational and missional test, what score would you give yourself and why?

What do you believe you need to do or stop doing, to increase your score?
