

RELENTLESS LOVE

Scriptures

Ezekiel 16:1-17

Main Points

God is looking for a pure, faithful, and loving bride for His Son. She will be a whole hearted lover of Christ and He is looking amongst His people.

The true bridal position is to focus on her Groom and the preparation of her heart. This heart is soft and surrendered, and will demonstrate this through a life integrated with her Groom, expressing love, peace, and joy.

The heart attitude of the adulterous bride is one that is hardened, resistant, and rebellious. She lives as though she is separated and independent of Him- seeking her own pleasure.

His relentless Love calls us to Himself to be in union with Him. When we turn to Him and repent He covers us with His grace. He will wash us by His word and anoint us with His spirit.

Questions

1. Describe the Bride that Christ deserves, and discuss why He deserves this.
2. Share with each other about the day when the Lord heard you cry and declared "Live!" (vs. 6)
3. Remind yourself how He saved you and is saving you.
4. Why is submission so important in our relationships?
5. What is the heart attitude of the adulterous wife?
6. What is our hope?
