Key Thought/s

Do we love our spouses, our father, our mother, our sons, our daughters, our grandchildren, our cousins, our friends more than we love Jesus?

“where your treasure is there your heart will be also”

In other words what we truly love, what we truly desire and pursue, that is where you will find a person's heart. Our affection and devotion is given to one another, and not the lover of our soul.

So how are we to come into and live from this position of wisdom?

1: We must have a desire for our hearts to be changed

2: We must receive in us more of the "Bread of life"

Questions

1. Jesus said if we love other people more than Him we are not worthy of Him?

What are our thoughts in relation to this truth and what aspects of Him are we not worthy of?

2. What major point do you think Jesus is trying to get across to us here in relation to not being worthy of Him and how does this passage of truth relate to the 1st & 2nd Commandments of the 10 Commandments and the Great Commandment?

3. Why is being free from every person from unhealthy soul ties so important as a follower of Jesus?

4. How prepared are we for change if we find ourselves having others at the centre of our life and not Christ?

5. Eating Jesus flesh and drinking His blood is the answer to life in us, because He is the literal bread of life. How well do you know of this bread and are we in fact receiving it? Why are we not receiving it if we are not?

6. What can you start doing as a group to move towards this life in you all more and more?
