Main points

1. Outside of God's will the weakness of our flesh gets even weaker.
2. Our true strength is found in God, not ourselves.
3. Awareness of our weakness enables us to take it to God, and seek help.
4. More God is more strength, God strengthens us in His presence, pray!
5. Christ modelled praying for each other, this is the pattern we must follow!

Questions

1. What is God saying to you through this message and scriptures?
2. Why do spiritually wise people still make horrible choices?
3. Are you aware of your weakness? Are you honest with yourself God, and others about them?
4. Are you living in God's will for you (where you should be, doing what He's called you to)?
5. What do you do when you are feeling weak?
6. As a group do you commit time to pray for each other's weakness and perseverance?
