James 2:20-26
2 Corinthians 4:16-18
Hebrews 11:13-14
Romans 4:13-14
Romans 4:22-24

Key Points

- Faith is the Reality of the Truth Realised, Known and then Acted upon in obedience to Christ.
- Faith is the Reality of the Truth Realised, Known and then Acted upon in obedience to Christ
- The people of Hebrews 11 gained their APPROVAL, their RIGHTEOUSNESS BY Faith and OBEDIENCE to God and NOT through a SACRIFICE of blood.

Questions

1. After hearing the message has your understanding changed in relation to what Faith is? If so why and if not why?
2. The people of Hebrews 11 saw and welcomed promises from afar and lived in accordance to what they saw. How is this possible?
3. What do the words BY FAITH mean to us in the way we live our lives today?
4. The men of old gained approval with God - righteousness, because of their faith. What impact does this have on your understanding of what faith is?
5. Share with the group the unseen things that God has or is showing you about Himself and His promises for the church, and the difference these things are making in your life?
