Faith is: the substance, the evidence of the true knowledge of God that one holds, in accordance to what is written and spoken by God that are unseen.

Questions

1. What are our thoughts in relation to this description about faith?
2. How has this description of faith challenged your current understanding of faith?
3. Abraham when tested offered up Isaac to God. When God tests us to give what He is asking of us, how do we respond?
4. Biblical faith produces absolute confidence in God and what He asks of us. Why is this the case?
5. How is this faith formed in us and how are we currently living to see it formed in us?
