

1. Why is the modelling of what you teach and expect so vital in the leadership of others?
2. What does having a group of people devoted and committed to a shared purpose achieve in relation to a church, organisation or business?
3. Why is it vital that people can and know, that they are able to challenge the process behind certain purposes, visions or activities that a church, business or organisation is doing?
4. Which one of these 3 essential practises do you sense you need to grow in more and why?
