Encouragement

1. How easy does encouraging others come to you and why?
2. How specific are you when you do encourage people?
3. What is one thing you can start doing in this area of encouraging people?

Communication

1. How well do you believe you communicate with people and why?
2. Why is over communicating what you want the person/people to understand so important in achieving something specific?
3. Why is seeking clarity to what has been said so important when communicating with others?
4. Why is using the appropriate method of communication (face to face, email, txt, etc) so imperative, when dealing with different situations and circumstances?
5. Why is no communication so dangerous to relationship building?
