Questions:

1. What is the spiritual gift of teaching? And what does it mean to teach one another? How does this differ from being a talented communicator?
2. Paul talks about knowing and articulating “God’s wisdom” and that we are to combine “spiritual thoughts with spiritual words”. What is the difference between speaking from God’s wisdom and man’s wisdom?
3. Who in the body of Christ is responsible for teaching others? Why does the writer of Hebrews expect that his readers should now be teachers?
