

The Relational Disciple

The Way Of The Master

Jesus our example, discipled twelve people by living with them for three years. He modelled discipleship as He lived, walked and ate with them. He taught them through parables and real life object lessons - not primarily in a large group setting.

Kingdom culture is all about one-another, while the World's culture is all about self.

Discipleship groups purpose: Each member being transformed into the image of the Son.

Key Truth: The bible never speaks of an individualistic form of discipleship.

Questions:

1. Why is the process of discipleship not just about an individual's walk with God?
2. Why do you believe Jesus chose this way, of walking with a group of men, to share with them His Father and His Father's ways?
3. What do you think the dangers are for someone who just wants to walk this relationship out on their own?
4. Why do some people chose this option of walking individually?
5. Just because we are part of a group doesn't mean that discipleship is actually occurring. Why do you think this is the case?
6. What heart posture needs to be present in each person, for true discipleship to occur?
